

Chinese

International Chinese Classroom Teaching Cases

International Chinese Teachers, students majoring in International Chinese Education and related disciplines

- Carefully selected real-life classroom case studies from over 20 countries in Asia, Europe, the Americas, Africa and Oceania.
- Covers 7 major topics, including teaching the fundamentals of Chinese, skill development, teaching methods and activities, class design and management, course resources and evaluations, cross-cultural communication, and Chinese culture promulgation.
- Covers teaching at all levels, and includes comments and analyses from many experts and renowned educators.

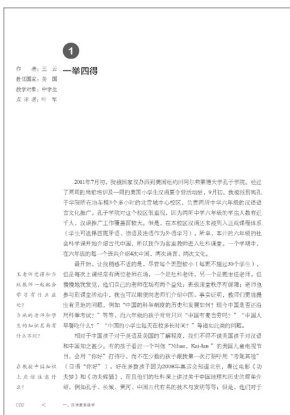

International Chinese Teaching Cases

978-7-04-038128-3 46 pages MTC SOL Education Supervisory Committee Secretariat

Reading Questions

Encourages the reader to reflect about the readings.

Real-life Cases

Authentic records; vivid, recurring classroom teaching scenarios.

Reflection

Provides post-reading reflection for the reader, and continues to pose questions.

Expert Comments

Closely analyze cases, provides professional suggestions.

